Exam: Exam in Business Development	ECTS: 25	External
Timing: At the end of the Business Development module
Exam form: Oral exam based on a written report
Detailed description of the examination form: The student is to draw up a business plan for a specific business situation selected by the student. The examination is oral and is based on the written report. The written report is individual, but with the possibility of writing the business plan as a group project. The oral exam is individual, and the exam lasts 30 minutes, including assessment. The scope of the business plan is minimum 10,000 characters. Business plans conducted as group work increases the scope of the work by minimum 25% for each group member, i.e. 2500 characters extra for each group member. It is strongly recommended that the students write 30,000-50,000 characters to accomplish an adequate business plan – therefore, it is also recommended that the students are working in groups of 3-5 members. At the exam, the student initially must show the group’s product presentation in the form of a video clip of 3-5 min., to illustrate the distinctiveness of the business idea to the customer/user. Subsequently, the student must provide an individual investor pitch/presentation of 3-5 min. of the business plan. Then there will be examination of the business plan.

In the assessment is included the business plan, the group's video clip, the individual pitch and the oral examination. The written and oral parts are assessed equally.
Learning goals: The learning goals for the test are identical to the learning goals for the module Business Development
Assesment: One combined grade according to the 7-point scale
Admission requirement: Completion of previous Obligatory Learning Activities. Form and substance of those appears from the Lecture Plans of each module.
Consequences of failing: If the student does not hand in the business plan for the ordinary exam or has not participated in the oral exam, the re-exam will be held as an ordinary exam. See above. The re-exam is individual and takes 30 minutes including assessment. At the re-exam the student must provide a new pitch and hand in an improved version of the business plan. The product presentation on video is still a part of the pitch, and it is up to the student, whether a new video should be produced for the re-exam Students receive one individual combined grade based on the 7-point scale.

Exam: Internship exam	ECTS: 15	Internal
Timing: The internship examination is held immediately after completion of the internship period
Exam form: Individuel mundtlig eksamen baseret på praktikprojektet. Individual oral exam based on the internship report.
Detailed description of the examination form During the course of the internship period and in the period immediately following, the student is to prepare an internship report. The report is to be based on an issue of own choice in the internship company and is also to include an evaluation of the extent to which the learning and personal goals specified by the student have been met. The internship examination is held immediately after completion of the internship period. ,and the form is a written report with oral defense. The examination is based on the written project and consists of an individual oral exam lasting 30 minutes, during which time the student should present and discuss his or her project, the future implications of the project as well as reflect on learning goals. The scope of the internship report is not to exceed 35,000 characters. The report has to have a minimum scope of 75% or 26.250 characters – else the report will be rejected.
Learning goals: The learning goals of the exam are identical to the learning goals for the internship
Assesment: One combined grade according to the 7-point scale.
Admission requirement: Goals for the professional and personal learning outcome must be approved by the internship counselor. Log book must be sent to counselor according to the rules in force (see Fronter).

Consequences of failing:

If the examination is not passed, the student must participate in a re-exam. At the re-exam a new internship is to be handed in, based on a new research question.

Exam 8: Final examination project	ECTS: 15	External
Timing: At the end of 4th semester
Exam form: Written project with subsequent oral exam
Detailed description of the examination form: The project is designed to document the student's ability to methodologically define and develop a complex research question in relation to a specific project in an internship company.¹ The project is also intended to develop and demonstrate the student's ability to combine knowledge and skills from the obligatory modules and the elective learning elements, enabling him or her to understand and relate to the specific work tasks of a company. The project is based on collected information, facts and ideas and should demonstrate the student's ability to process, analyse and evaluate the selected material and to combine this with relevant theories and methodologies covered by the study program. Financial considerations and elements are to be included as a natural part of the basis for the selection of solution. It is required that the student makes use of detailed field and desk research in working with the final project. The student, the institution and the internship company are to agree on the subject matter of the final project, as the project aims to solve a practical issue within the company. The institution must approve the subject and the initial problem statement², and will assign the student a supervisor. The final examination project is to be developed on the basis of central areas in the education and the student's specialisation and is expected to reflect to a high degree the competency profile of a graduate. As a rule, the final exam project is to be developed individually and is typically written for the company in which the student has completed his or her internship. However, permission may be granted for a group of up to three students, who have been interns in the same company, or that they in consultation with their different internship companies to work with a more industry-related subject matter.

¹ The academy must be informed in writing and give approval if the student does not intend to write about his or her internship company.

² Note that it is only permissible to make minor adjustments to the problem statement, and it will always be advisable to contact the relevant supervisor

Permissible scope:

Final examination project	Maximum no. of characters including spacing
1 student	80,000 characters
2 students	120,000 characters
3 students	160,000 characters

A minimum of 75% of the maximum amount of characters must be handed in – else the project will be rejected.

Learning goals: All the learning goals of the study programme

Assessment: Individual oral exam lasting 45 minutes, including assessment. One combined grade according to the 7-point scale is given. The grade is communicated to the student immediately after completion of the oral exam.

Admission requirements: The student must have passed all Obligatory Learning Activities and exams at the 1st to 4th semester prior to this exam.

Consequences of failing:

If the examination is not passed, a new project must be prepared. This may be based on the same topic, but the problem statement must be significantly different from the initial problem statement.

4.1 How formulating and spelling capacities influence the assessment

At the assessment of the final project the formulating and spelling capacities of the student are part of the assessment foundation, regardless of which language the project is written in. Yet the professional content outweighs the formulating and spelling capacities, cf. the Examination Order § 35, section 4.

5. Description of obligatory learning activities

The programme stipulates that a student must meet some prerequisite requirements to participate in an exam. These prerequisites are called obligatory learning activities.

Below is the correlation between the individual obligatory learning activities and the associated exams, as well as the consequences of not completing a specific obligatory learning activity, including the possibility of fulfilling obligatory learning activities in the second or third attempts.

Obligatory learning activity	Associated exam	Deadlines	Consequences of not completing a obligatory learning activity in the first attempt	Consequences of not completing a obligatory learning activity in the second attempt	Consequences of not completing a obligatory learning activity in the third attempt
Erhvervsakademiet Lillebælt demands several learning activities in the 1st and 2nd semester	1st year portfolio exam	Deadlines will be written in the project descriptions, uploaded on Fronter	You have used one exam attempt You must complete the obligatory learning activity. In specific cases this could be as an individual assignment.	You have used two exam attempts You must complete the obligatory learning activity. In specific cases this could be as an individual assignment.	You have used three exam attempts and your enrolment in the programme will be terminated

For all learning activities three attempts are given. The holding of the second attempt must be within 14 days after having received the evaluation of the first attempt. Correspondingly the holding of the third attempt must be within 14 days after having received the second attempt.

By absenteeism with valid reason in connection with learning activities where presence is demanded, a dispensation can be given for handing in the assignment.

Compulsory assignments/obligatory assignments

Lack of participation in Compulsory assignments/obligatory activities:

For instance Hand in paper, Written project, No-show for obligatory activity, Participation in Oral presentation (see your Semester plan/Calendar of events).

- If you are sick: Send an email to the teacher, who is in charge of the relevant activity and explain that you are sick. Hand in a Doctor's note at the Study administration or in your Student counsellor's office no more than 3 working days after the relevant activity has been held. You will be exempt from doing the activity, but you will be offered to do it later, when you are well.

- If you are not sick: You may not take part in the upcoming exams, before you have fulfilled the Compulsory activity/obligatory assignment. Contact your teacher and ask, what you must do to fulfil the requirements for the relevant activity.

NOTE: You are using one exam attempt every time an exam date has passed, even if you have been banned from attending the exam. Once you have used 3 exam attempts, you will be signed out of the Study programme.

Lack of participation in Compulsory exams:

- If you are sick: Call Reception +45 7010 5800 or send an email to eal@eal.dk in the morning time and explain that you are sick. Hand in a Doctor's note at the Study administration or in the Student counsellor's office no later than 3 working days after the exam has been held. This means that you have not used an attempt.
- If you are not sick: You must take part in the first coming re-exam, and you have now used one attempt. Re-exam will count as your second exam attempt, and you will only have one attempt left.
